Why an IYRP?

- To showcase important contributions of rangelands & pastoralists for food security and environment
- To increase worldwide understanding of complexities and values of rangelands & pastoral systems
- To inform policymaking at all levels

Process for approval as International Year

- Oct 2020: FAO Committee on Agriculture (COAG) endorsed Mongolian Government's proposal for IYRP in 2026
- Proposal supported by over 150 organisations and over 50 national governments
- Next hurdles in UN process:
  - FAO Council Dec 2020
  - FAO Conference June 2021
  - United Nations General Assembly Sept 2021

IYRP International Support Group (ISG) is creating multi-stakeholder RISGs to:

- expand network of supporting organisations and governments in their regions
- work with Government of Mongolia and us to plan and implement IYRP activities in their regions.

Central role for pastoralist organisations
in these activities

ISG seeks more partners with common aims

- COAG acknowledged importance of IYRP initiative for SDGs and UN Decades of Family Farming (2019–28) and Ecosystem Restoration (2021–30)
- To help us promote and plan the IYRP, we invite like-minded partners to join us
  - such as Global Grassland Dialogue Platform members

Would you like to contribute to this initiative?

- Promote IYRP in conferences & meetings and on social media
- Contact government officials in your country to request their support for Mongolia's proposal for an IYRP in 2026
- Join an RISG to help plan & implement activities leading up to and during the IYRP in your countries / regions
